

SOUTH BANK TAEKWONDO

GRADING QUALIFICATION:

In order to qualify for grading the following must be true:

1 – Are you up-to-date with your monthly membership fees?

2 – Do you currently hold a valid BTCB licence and insurance?

Please note: BTCB insurance must be renewed six weeks prior to expiry. You can get a renewal form from the club instructor or download one from the members area on our web site.

3 – Have you attended classes regularly?

A minimum of 80% attendance; this translates to 20 classes out of 24 in any three month period or since your last grading. This is doubled for 2nd and 1st kups.

4 – Are you wearing the correct uniform?

It must be an approved Taekwondo uniform. No ITF, Judo, Karate or other martial art uniform to be worn or one that displays past associations. This is also true for training and competitions. If you are unsure speak to the instructor.

5 - Are you able to perform 'to a reasonable standard' all that is required of your grading?

Remember, the grading is the 'minimum' requirement. You may be asked to perform an exercise or technique again and continuously. You may also be asked to perform exercises and techniques from past and future gradings including terminology.

6 – Have you been asked to grade by the instructor?

PRICES: The price includes your grading exam and examiner fee, certificate and tag or belt. This must be paid prior to grading. No fee = no grading.
